We have sent them regular small amount of money of a couple of hundred dollars to buy the necessary things that they need such as: medicine, foods, clothings, batteries and shoes. Situations in the jungle have improved somewhat to gathering intelligence information and there have been no skirmish in the last three months.

If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

Thus far, we have only provided advice by phone to our foreign principals on what to do as each situation occurred in their areas. We have no means to get to them, but they keep calling us regularly for money and advice concerning each situation such as the enemy was attacking them or tried to surround them. Mostly, our advice was to tell them to stay quiet and avoid any arm contact with the enemy until further notice.

In the US, our ULC Leaders wrote to President Barack Obama before he visited Laos in September, 2016 - requesting him to emphasize on human rights, democracy, the Geneva Peace Agreements on Laos in 1973 and 1962, and requesting the US and the international community to compel the illegal Vietnamese and Chinese out of Laos immediately in order for Laos to regain its true independence.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits your foreign principal(s)? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe fully.

We inform our members at meetings of the FAs' situation and request on site donations to the fronts and divide according to the needs of each group and the people each group has. When the foreign principals have urgent needs, the contact persons just call around the members they know and sent them out immediately.

We also organized a ULC Fundraising Party at Lao Bouasavanh Hall, MN, on August 12, 2016 and raised $6,147.00.

Dear President Obama,

We, the United Lao Council for Peace, Freedom and Reconstruction, are pleased that you've had a successful visit to Laos – participating in the ASEAN Summit in Vientiane from September 6-8, 2016. We are grateful for your good knowledge of our Lao cultures and history and made a heartfelt impression with much hope to all Lao people both inside the country and in overseas, especially among the youth.

The White House/DOS/Asia-Pacific Division and the U.S. Embassy in Vientiane are to be commended for having worked hard to make your special trip to Laos a wonderful receptive one by emphasizing on reinvigorating the relations with Laos which the U.S is counting as a country of rising strategic importance; the U.S., therefore, has opened a new era in the U.S.-Lao relationship with a coalition of comprehensive aids, investments and development programs and with human rights and democracy improvements and connecting with the Lao-American community.

We deeply appreciate your untiring efforts to resolve Laos political-economic problems so the Lao in overseas can be united with their compatriots inside the country to keep Laos truly independent, democratic and be prosperous like its neighbors.

We trust the US Government will continue to help Laos resolved its political problems quickly so that the recent U.S.-LAO JOINT DECLARATION in Vientiane on September 6, 2016 can realize the well wishes between Laos and the United States.

With high respect and gratitude,

RESOLUTION TO PROMOTE HUMAN RIGHTS & DEMOCRACY IN LAOS, PER S. Res.240 & H. Res.402

Whereas, in 1975, the Kingdom of Laos, a constitutional monarchy and an important ally of the United States during the Vietnam War, was overthrown by the Marxist-Leninist Lao People's Revolutionary Party with the assistance of the North Vietnamese Army;

Whereas, the Lao People's Democratic Republic (LPDR) was established as an authoritarian one-party regime under communist Vietnam's control and guidance since 1975. Presently, Laos is controlled politically and militarily by Vietnam and economically by China;

Whereas, hundreds of thousands of Lao nationals were killed at the hands of communist forces in reeducation/labor camps, in the jungles, and while attempting to flee the country because they were allies of the U.S and considered obstacles to communist takeover during the war;

Whereas, over a million Lao had fled Laos for fear of persecution to various countries in the world, with approximately 700,000 in the U.S and between 600,000 to 700,000 in Thailand;

Whereas, peace has not prevailed in Laos even after 40 years; instead, there are still armed uprisings all over the country; since November of 2015 to March 2016, more than a dozen violent outbreaks have occurred in the province of Xaysomboun and on the border of Vientiane and Louang Prabang, on Highway 13, killing and wounding more than two dozen people, to the extent that our US Embassy in Vientiane has warned US citizens not to travel to these zones;

Whereas, the root cause of the continued armed uprisings in Laos was the systemic corruption in the Lao PDR government and the lack of democracy and rules of laws in the country, and the continuing control of Laos by communist Vietnam.

Whereas, two to three million communist Vietnamese have poured into Laos, including tens of thousands of prisoners, destroying Laos social-cultures, landscape, environment, language and identify, and way of life, and forcing thousands of Lao youth to seek employment in Thailand, where many of them have fallen victims to human trafficking;

Whereas, the US State Department reported in its most recent Country Report on Human Rights Practices in Laos that Laos restricts its citizens from enjoying the freedoms of speech, assembly, and religion, and from undertaking activities to change their government;

Whereas, the United States has a vital interest in the "Rebalance towards Asia" with emphasis on the security and economic development of ASEAN and Asia-Pacific, the promotion of democratic principles, human rights, national sovereignty, and territorial integrity in Asia.

Therefore, be it resolved, that the US Congress strongly supports the following points in Laos and urges the United Nations, the European Union, and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations to:

1. Cease all international aids and economic investments in Laos to force the Lao PDR to change its policies to enable the democratic participation of all ethnic citizens of the Lao nation and to end the systemic and persistent corruption among government officials at all levels.
2. Cease all international aids and economic investments in Laos to force the Lao PDR to end the gross human rights violations in the country, land confiscation, the forced removal of the populace to uncultivable lands, and the arrest and killing of innocent Lao both in towns and in the countryside; and to lift the restriction on freedom of speech, association, and religions as well as on the use of the internet and global telecommunication;
3. Restore Laos' national sovereignty, independence, territorial integrity, democracy and neutrality according to the terms of the Peace Agreements of 1973 and 1962; and
4. Compel the illegal Vietnamese and Chinese entering Laos after 1975 to leave Laos immediately, so Laos can have true independence, democracy, and prosperity and be able to contribute to the Economic Development and Security of ASEAN as envisioned by the ASEAN Community, the United States, and the World Community.
